Davis and Mary the mother of Jesus into a supernatural adventure. Both women took big leaps of faith to journey deeper into the heart of God. Jessica leaves middle-class America the day after high school graduation to travel throughout Africa ministering to the poor. She discovers how the vibrant land and amazing people reveal the upside-down nature of Gods Kingdom. Mary was called to bridge Heaven and earth by bringing life to a new movement of God into the world around her. They both experience great joy and profound sorrow. For Loves Sake opens the camouflaged "back door" of missions living in outrageous fellowship with God onto roads packed with heavenly encounters, miracles, and the reality of suffering in war zones. With captivating transparency, For Loves Sake is a wide-open stare into one womans fascinating trek with the poor, a brutal attack and threat on her life, and her honest reflections of the good, the bad, and the ugly underside of a life laid down for love.
