Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Wool Marketing: Report of the Meeting of Wool Growers, Representatives of Bureau of Animal Industry, State Marketing Organizations and Wool Dealers, Held in Columbus, Ohio, March 6, 1919 Statistics presented at this session regarding the present world s stocks of wool; and their character lead us to the belief that there is no cause for alarm regarding the future of the sheep and wool industry. Wool stocks at present in this country are characterized by large supplies of grade wools of a kind not normally coming into competition with the best grades., of domestic wools, and a comparatively small supply of choice wools. Furthermore, the prospective demand of manufacturers appears sufficient to absorb all supplies of good wool now in sight. There appears to be nothing in the situation to cause growers to be hasty in selling their wools. It is our understanding that any reforms to be brought about in wool marketing methods must be inaugurated and conducted by growers themselves, for they will benefit first and chiefly from such reforms. It is strongly urged that wool growers form and support community organizations for marketing their wool and improving their production; and it is further urged that these community organizations federate as rapidly as possible with the state and national organizations. Loyal support of the local organizations is deemed essential to success. - Extract from the final report.
