The Boxcar Children 42: The Mystery of the Missing Cat

---

By Warner, Gertrude Chandler

Albert Whitman & Company, 1994. Trade paperback. Book Condition: New. Tang, Charles (Illustrated by). (illustrator). Trade paperback (US). Glued binding. 128 p. Pen&Ink artwork. Audience: Children/juvenile. Youth Series about 4 Alden children who had been living in a boxcar, but are reunited with their grandfather and living in New England. Herein, they help look for Mr. Woods's cat, Spotzie. The more they help, the more mysterious the search becomes: strange characters, frightening phone calls, a look-alike cat. Author and teacher Gertrude Chandler Warner created this series based on her childhood watching trains near her home, and finding that children did not have enough fun and easy reading. Her first novel was so popular, she would write another 18, each based in a new setting, and having a mystery for the Boxcar Children to solve, often involving eccentric characters. Mrs. Warner of Putnam CT died in 1979.
