Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Unabridged. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .An incidental, and coincidental, collection of maxims and verse, both wise and comical, both commonsensical and abstruse, TUBAV is the result of years of writing, gathering, and experiencing life. Through times ranging from ecstatic exuberance to the heaviest despair, from the most carefree frivolity to the greatest intensity of effort and concentration, the author and editor has learned truths that only experience can teach, and only the furnace of hard lessons hardly grasped can instill. Within the few pages of this short compendium, depending on the views and tenets to which one adheres, the reader will find quite a bit to cause either delight or disdain, reverent musing or vane ridicule, provocative reflection or smug dismissal. Some of the greatest minds in history have been the least known outside of their specific purview, and yet their pithy observations and statements can cut through all of the trees and undergrowth to clearly reveal the forest in all its grandeur. When I was yet a child in grammar school my Great-grandmother, Georgia Gramma Johnny Gardner Johns, nee Gardner Owens, began requesting-actually, obliging-me to produce, think up, a proverb as often as may be, pushing for one every month. It was very good training, as it made necessary my study of words of wisdom from others, the famous and the not so famous, the latter group subsuming some of her generation s family members. As she was in her late eighties at the time, the insights of her generation introduced to me a wholly new perspective, devoid of the prejudices which engulf the understanding of all eras and epochs. In the four sections you will find heartrending sentiments; bitingly honest...
