Her mother had given her a party, and all her little friends, both boys and girls, had been invited. The tree, with its hundreds of colored lights and gayly tinted balls and bells and wreaths of tinsel, each branch loaded until it fairly groaned with gifts small and big, had been set in the drawing-room carefully darkened as if it were indeed night. The guests agreed that they had never before seen so beautiful a Christmas-tree. All the tints of the rainbow glowed among the green, while strings of glass beads and chains of polished metal glistened like rain-drops in the summer sun.
