To-morrow week it will be ten months since we have seen him; and tomorrow week it will be ten months since we ve had a scrap of his handwriting. Is that girl to remain here, dependent on the bounty of a struggling artist and two old maids? My opinion is that she ought to go out and gain her own livelihood; my feeling is that--that--I couldn t bear to think of the poor dear in any home but this! Here the old lady, whose assumption of extreme fortitude had been gradually leading to the inevitable catastrophe, broke down altogether, while Susannah, giving rein to her emotions, lifted up her voice and wept. You knew who she was all along, Jemima, said the latter, gulping sadly at her syllables: you know you did; and it s cruel to harrow up our feelings like this. Simon said nothing, but on his homely features gathered an expression of resolve, through which there gleamed the bright radiance of hope. Miss Perkins wiped her eyes and then her spectacles. Resuming her dignity, she proceeded in a calmer voice-- I will not conceal from you, Susannah, nor from you, Simon, that I have had my suspicions for several years. Those suspicions became a certainty some time ago. There can be no doubt now of the relationship existing between our Nina and the Mr. Algernon, as he called himself, who took such an interest in the child s welfare....
