Non-Aligned Movement (Unipolar World and Beyond)

By K.S. Pavithran

New Bharatiya Book Corporation, New Delhi, India, 2007.
 Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Dust Jacket Condition: New.
 First Edition. Non Aligned originated in response to the complex challenges of Post-Second World War world reality. Emerging from the nightmare of a global war, the world found itself on the threshold of an era of escalating international tensions and Cold War politics. Non-Alignment was an anxious appeal to the nations of the world for a retreat to peace and sanity, The Movement envisioned a radical restructuring of the principles and perceptions of international Relations and policies. The initiative came in the 1950s from three nations - India, Yugoslavia and Egypt respectively represented by the three statesmen -Nehru, Tito and Nasser. From its modest beginnings at the Belgrade Conference in 1961, with a participation of 25 nations, the Non-Aligned Movement has expanded to include 114 nations in the Kuala Lumpur Summit Conference in 2003. Printed Pages: 154.
